Based on the Platinum Homes Hobson plan, this modern home offers 161 sqm of intelligently designed living space.

Part of the Ignite Range, the Hobson has been economically designed for entry-level buyers, while still being crafted to the Platinum Homes standard of quality and style. The open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area creates a welcoming central hub. The contemporary kitchen is both practical and stylish.

With four bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom, this home makes smart use of every square metre. The master bedroom includes an ensuite, while the remaining bedrooms are well positioned to suit family living, guests, or a home office. A double internal access garage, dedicated laundry, and good storage throughout complete this well-considered layout.
