Spanning 169sqm, the single-level home has been designed for comfortable everyday living, with open shared spaces balanced by well-separated bedroom areas.

At the centre of the home, the kitchen features a walk-in pantry and connects to the open-plan dining and living area, creating a practical hub for everyday living and entertaining. A dedicated office nook provides additional flexibility for working from home or study.

Three well-proportioned bedrooms include a private master suite with dressing room and ensuite. The remaining bedrooms are supported by a family bathroom, while a double garage and additional storage complete the practical layout.
