Permissions and Protocol

As a Yugambeh Yarrabilginngunn (songwoman), there is a level of responsibility that comes with holding, sharing and passing Aboriginal knowledge, including the duty to lay the path for community to learn the land's narrative and carry the land's language. All works produced by the Yugambeh Youth Aboriginal Corporation are endorsed by Yugambeh Elders and safeguard the authenticity of Aboriginal knowledge as it moves forward and is shared with community and business organisations.

Candace Kruger, 2020

When working with this song material we respectfully ask that you adhere to the following protocols:

- Acknowledge the language and people of the land on which you gather.
- Acknowledge the narrative, the song material and inclusion of Yugambeh language from South-East Queensland.

Audience Advice: Please be advised that this resource contains names and stories of people who have now passed.

Yugambeh language region

The traditional lands of the Yugambeh language region are located within South-East Queensland, currently known as City of Gold Coast, Logan City and Scenic Rim Region.

Rich in culture, arts and language, the people of this region maintain strong connection to the land, inland waterways, sea and sky.

Always was, always will be.

Morning Star and Evening Star
Who is the fat one and who is the thin one?
Morning Star and Evening Star
Who should come out first?
Morning Star calls to Evening Star,
"Come on!"
Evening Star sings out, "No, you go ahead!"

"When I was a little girl,
Granny Graham
used to sing this song
to me every night
because it was my favourite."

Sharing the narrative

"Lottie's wish was to have 'Morning Star and Evening Star' passed on and shared, so I am delighted that through the Yugambeh Youth Aboriginal Corporation's partnership with the Australian Music Examinations Board, we can fulfil this request. Alongside my cousin Lann Levinge, my daughter Isobella Kruger and blessed by our Elders, we hope that through the 'Morning Star and Evening Star' songline, everyone can enjoy learning the narrative of our people."

"We are honoured to have the opportunity to help bring this truly Australian narrative to life. We have really enjoyed working with Candace and her community and we thank the Elders of the Yugambeh region for their permission to use the song.

We now look forward to sharing the rediscovered story of 'Morning Star and Evening Star' with people around the country."
