

REAL ESTATE

Anthony finished at St Bede's in 1997 and completed 5 years of study at Moorabbin TAFE and Monash University, graduating with a degree in Business and Commerce in 2002, following which he worked in financial services for ten years at both VicSuper and Bell Potter Securities in various account management roles in both superannuation and margin lending.

In 2012 Anthony made a career change and moved into residential real estate sales and has been working with the Jellis Craig Bayside & Glen Eira Group (formerly known as Hocking Stuart) for the past five years. His current role entails meeting and servicing prospective vendors, assisting developers with their plans and servicing a large number of buyers that he meets on a weekly basis.

Link to career information in real estate

