

CT:IQ

Clinical Trials : Thinking Smarter

BECOME A MEMBER

Join us and use these disruptive times as an opportunity to drive innovation in the Australian clinical trials sector

CT:IQ is a collaborative of diverse stakeholders including government, industry, researchers, sites, phase I units, HRECs, interest groups and consumers, with a collective focus on improving the clinical trial sector.

In the past year, we have launched sector-wide improvement projects on:

- eConsent implementation in clinical trials
- clinical trial site recruitment
- early phase clinical trials best practice
- consumer involvement and engagement - a Toolkit for researchers and research organisations wishing to conduct patient-centred clinical trials, a collaborative project with Australian Clinical Trials Alliance
- Electronic execution of contracts

By becoming a member, individuals from your organisation can join project teams, dedicated to developing solutions to the roadblocks and inefficiencies that impede the value and conduct of clinical trials in Australia.

For information on how to become a member visit www.ctiq.com.au or email Programme Director, Leanne Weekes: leanneweekes@ctiq.com.au

This venture has received funding through the MTPConnect Project Fund Program – a dollar-for-dollar matched program investing in big, bold ideas to improve the productivity, competitiveness and innovative capacity of Australia's medical technology, biotechnology and pharmaceutical sector. MTPConnect is supported by the Australian Government Industry Growth Centres Initiative – learn more at mtpconnect.org.au